CURIOUS CULLINGS.

This rather disheartening sign was displayed to the view of customers in a fish store in lower Sixth avenue, New York: "Boy Wanted to Open Oysters Sixteen Years Old."

The organ of one of the churches in Belfast having refused to work, investigation revealed the presence of a large eel in the exhaust pipe. It was of course dead, and there is no explanation as to how it got there.

A Parisian who has been much annoyed by dums has connected his bell handle with a powerful electric battery and switches on the current at psychological moments. So far the police have declined to interfere.

A large flock of quail settled down on Main street, Los Angeles, Cal., right in the business heart of the town. They were soon frightened away and sailed off toward the hills. The oldest inhabitant is trying to cudgel up a precedent for this unusual thing.

Aerial dinners are now the fashion in Paris. M. Santos-Dumont recently gave one at which the tables and chairs were suspended from the ceiling by wires, the waiters walked on stilts and the plates and dishes were raised on lifts. The guests got into their seats by means of stepladders.

First Expositions.

The first exposition was in Paris in 1793, the first in England in 1823 and in America, in New York, 1853. These were not international. The first of these was in London in 1851.

The Eyelashes.

The life of an eyelash is from 100 to 150 days. They grow very slowly.

TIMELY TOPICS.

An English railway expert is astonished to find that the "one idea of your railways is to get there." That's why we build them.—New York Herald.

No year will be better than this year to make a test to see whether Fourth of July cannot be celebrated without the needless killing of boys and girls.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Old New York is laughing at Brooklyn because the chief police officer of the united cities says he doesn't see any harm in playing Sunday baseball in isolated sections, meaning Brooklyn.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The boll weevil caused a loss to the cotton growers last year of $50,000,000. The value of the birds slaughtered for millinery in the same period was possibly half a million. If the birds had been let alone they would have destroyed the weevils. It is a queer economy we practice sometimes.—Brooklyn Eagle.

TIME IS THE BEST.

The Testimony of Barre People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale: "A new broom sweeps clean" but will it wear well is what interests most. The public soon find out when misrepresentations are made and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Barre people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills, they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts in the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

Mrs. N. M. Nelson (N. M. Nelson, ex-Superintendent of streets), residence 18 West Street, says: "I felt so well pleased with the results obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills in the winter of 1897 that I gave for publication a statement, the gist of which was as follows: An attack of a kidney trouble, some eight years before, left me in poor health. As time went by I grew worse instead of better. A second attack prostrated me and still weakened my condition physically. I paid over $100 for doctors' bills and medicines, but I might as well have used as much cold water. To accurately describe my condition and tell what I suffered is an utter impossibility. The slightest housework tired me. If on my feet an hour or so, sharp pains across my back, extending downwards, compelled me to stop and rest. At night when I went to bed the very place where a neural expert rests and comfort was the very place where I never received it, and, as might be expected, I arose in the morning poorly prepared for the commonest household duties. In time other complications arose and accompanying the backache which was severe enough of itself, trouble with the kidney secretions set in. I became discouraged and often I wonder how I pulled through. One day Mr. Nelson pulled home a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Dr. A. Brown's drug store and insisted upon me taking them. If a dose or two had not brought decided results I would never have continued the treatment until they stopped a decidedly acute and possibly dangerous attack. I have never ceased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to friends and acquaintances during the five years which have elapsed since that preparation first came to my notice."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
